

A top-down view of several clusters of small, white, five-petaled flowers with yellow centers, likely cherry blossoms, scattered across a white-painted wooden surface. The flowers are in various stages of bloom, and some green leaves are visible. The lighting is bright and even, creating a clean, fresh aesthetic.

"You can never judge a paint hue by the liquid color in the paint pot.

You must apply it to a wall, wait for the paint to dry, then decide."

-Dorothy Draper
